

NATIVE VOICES

Honoring Indigenous Ways

APRIL 29 - MAY 3 | JACKSON, WY

Experience a powerful five-day celebration of Native American culture, storytelling and traditions. Native Voices: Honoring Indigenous Ways brings together Indigenous filmmakers, athletes, artists, and chefs to share their wisdom and talents.

TUE APR 29 Sacred Stoke: Native Athlete Stories – Professional Indigenous athletes Connor Ryan (Lakota) and Ellen Bradley (Tlingit) present film shorts and explore the deep connection between Native wisdom and the natural world. JHHS Theatre, Doors open 5:30 p.m., Event begins at 6 p.m.

WED APR 30 Wind River Cultural Presentations – Three presentations, Three Indigenous Talents: Jasmine Pickner Bell, an internationally acclaimed hoop dancer inspires local students; Connor Ryan, Skier and Filmmaker; Miracle Seminole, Tradition and Healing of the Star Quilt Center for the Arts Theater, 12 p.m.

WED APR 30 PREY MOVIE: Redefining Native Narratives with Jhane Myers – Jhane Myers, producer of Prey, discusses how Indigenous narratives are reshaping the film industry. Center for the Arts Theater, Doors open 6 p.m., Event begins at 6:30 p.m.

FRI MAY 2 Star Quilt Exhibit – Stunning works by Wind River artists Miracle Seminole and Cherokee Brown Center for the Arts, the Center Commons, 5 - 6:30 p.m.

SAT MAY 3 5th Annual Teton Powwow Snow King Sports & Event Center, 11 a.m. - 10 p.m.

