Art for Action:

An Evening of Climate Advocacy

Palisades Fire, Ava Reynolds

Artist & climate action talks + letter writing campaign

Come explore the environmental themes behind New Normal, Ava Reynold's current exhibit at the Center for the Arts. We will learn about climate policy from Margie Lynch of JHCAC and receive a call to action from the Wyoming Outdoor Council. Attendees will have the opportunity to write letters to congressional delegates advocating for critical climate programs that benefit Jackson and Wyoming as a whole. Light refreshments will be provided.

Your voice matters.
